

Saturday, July 10, 2010

Hundreds Brave the Heat for their Chance at New Home Ownership in Brampton

In March, they braved the cold and rain for a chance at affordable new home ownership in Mississauga. This time around, hundreds of prospective new home owners have braved the sweltering heat for their chance at one of 150 pre-built condo townhomes in Brampton. Lineups to preview these homes started on Saturday, July 3.

With prices starting from $159,900 and flexible down payment and "live free" programs, these FirstHome™ starter homes from Daniels offer phenomenal home ownership affordability.

Homes go on sale this morning at 8 am (Saturday, July 10) on a first come, first serve basis. For more details, visit www.danielsfirsthome.ca.

FirstHome™ Brampton will be located on the west side of Bramalea Road, just north of Sandalwood Parkway